

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAM REPORT

July 1, 2011 – Sept 30, 2011

WRC-TV attempts to serve the public interest, convenience and necessity by presenting broadcast material that treats significant issues of the people in the communities served by WRC-TV station. WRC recognizes that it has an ongoing obligation to remain aware of such community issues and to exercise its best judgment as to what broadcast matter should be programmed to treat those needs and interests.

The following is a brief description of such community issues and some of the programs we believe have provided the most significant treatment of such issues during the period July 1, 2011 – Sept 30, 2011, including the title of such program, its time, type, source, date and duration of broadcast.

NEWS FOUR AT FIVE AND ELEVEN A.M., FOUR, FIVE, SIX AND ELEVEN P.M. TYPE: News Series SOURCE: Local TIME: 5:00-7:00AM, 11:00-12:00 PM, 4:00-5:00PM, 5:00-6:00PM, 6:00-7:00PM, 11:00-11:35PM, Monday – Friday; 6:00-6:30PM, Saturday and Sunday. NEWS 4 TODAY. TYPE: News SOURCE: Local TIMES: Weekdays, 5:00-7:00AM, Saturdays, 6:00-7:00AM, 9:00-10:00AM, Sundays, 6:00AM-8:00AM, and 9:00AM-10:30AM. DURATION: See Times. WRC-TV reporters probe special issues of concern to area residents. Stories generally appear more than once in the daily newscasts, as they are recapped throughout the day. WRC-TV initiated, in December 1992, active closed captioning of its news broadcasts. Currently, all regularly scheduled news programs thirty minutes or longer are closed-captioned. Also, special news events sometimes are closed captioned, depending on the availability of the transcription service. The word for word transcription service includes chitchat between stories at two hundred plus words per minute, with less than a three-second delay. This effort addresses the needs of more than 300,000 deaf and hard of hearing people in the Washington area.

THE MCLAUGHLIN GROUP. TYPE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Syndicated (Originates from WRC-TV studios) TIME: Saturdays, 7:30-8:00PM, Repeated Sundays, 11:30AM. DURATION: thirty Minutes. This public affairs panel anchored by John McLaughlin, features discussion and analysis of current national and world events by five candid and respected Washington commentators.

ONE ON ONE. TYPE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Syndicated (Originates from WRC-TV) TIME: Sundays, 12:00 DURATION: Thirty Minutes. Host John McLaughlin interviews a prominent political or world leader each week on selected newsworthy issues.

REPORTERS NOTEBOOK. TYPE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Local TIME: Sundays, 6:15-6:30AM. DURATION: Fifteen Minutes. This reporter roundtable, which premiered on October 4, 1992, features discussion of public affairs issues by leading area journalists. The program is part of News 4 Today and usually is hosted by WRC-TV reporter Tom Sherwood. Journalist Milagros Ardin, WMAL-AM; Dave McConnell, WTOP-AM; and Jerry Phillips, WBIG-FM/WTEM-AM, join him.

VIEWPOINT. TYPE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Local TIME: Sundays, 7:00-7:30AM. DURATION: Thirty Minutes. WRC-TV's Joe Krebs hosts this weekly exploration of issues and people impacting the community. The program is part of the two hour News 4 Today news block on Sundays from 6:00-8:00AM. It premiered on November 15, 1992

Kids/Family

Many children in the Washington effort suffer from being denied the opportunity to grow up in a stable home with parents who can care for them emotionally and financially. WRC-TV helps these children directly through its Wednesday's Child project, described below. The station also broadcasts other news stories on the issue of adoption, some of which are described below.

NEWS FOUR AT FIVE PM. – WEDNESDAY'S CHILD. WRC-TV's Barbara Harrison, on selected Wednesdays, features a child or children who need a home, or celebrates a happy ending to an adoption story. In September, Barbara Harrison, with the Council of Governments, launched a program through which viewers may dial a phone number and find out more about adopting a child through any jurisdiction in our viewing area. Some of the stories are repeated on News 4 Sundays at nine AM.

FAMILY

6-27-11: Breastfeeding female police officers forced to work street duty as opposed to desk jobs.

6-27-11: DC fire department requires pregnant women to take sick leave or personal days after 30 days of light duty.

6-27-11: The United Service Organization (USO) establishes the Wounded Warrior Family Center in Ft. Belvoir.

6-28-11: All new Episode of "The Voice" at 9pm.

6-28-11: The National Zoo on 24-hour watch for Mei Xiang birth.

6-29-11: "The Voice" finale determines which contestant wins the title and record deal.

6-29-11: Barbara Harrison visits Brandon at The Guitar Center for Wednesday's child.

6-29-11: Missing Dog Posters for a shy Beagle mix "Sassafras" continues.

6-30-11: DC Fire Department establishes new policy for pregnant firefighters.

6-30-11: New VA laws: motorcycles, bikes, and mopeds can run red lights, restaurant customers can bring their own wine, tougher drinking and driving laws for minors.

6-30-11: The Naval Surface Warfare in Bethesda hold a submarine model race.

7-1-11: Pete Czerwinski wins burger eating contest at Z-burger.

7-1-11: The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge visit North America to celebrate Canada Day in Quebec.

7-4-11: July 4 activities in DC.

7-4-11: Palisades 4th of July Parade on McArthur Boulevard.

7-4-11: In-N-Out Burger and Chipotle place first in a consumer fast food taste test.

7-4-11: Cliff, a Great Dane, pulls a table and umbrella from out under him at a five guys restaurant.

7-4-11: 77 people from 44 countries became US citizens at Monticello.

7-4-11: Special appreciation day for active military members and their families at Ft. Meade.

7-4-11: Fireworks on the National Mall for 4th of July.

7-5-11: Fundraiser supports fire recovery process for the Tune Inn in Capitol Hill.

7-5-11: The Fraternal Order of Police mobile kitchen cooks for officers on July 4.

7-6-11: Barbara Harrison catches up with three siblings and their new adoptive family on Wednesday's Child.

7-6-11: The Dalai Lama visits DC in Chinatown.

7-6-11: Alexandria resident, Sonya Thomas, also known as "The Black Widow," won the Coney Island Hot Dog eating contest.

7-7-11: Bear sightings in Leesburg, Virginia.

7-7-11: Final shuttle launches at NASA Goddard Flight Space Center in Greenbelt, Maryland.

7-7-11: Junk 123 recycles and donates items during spring-cleaning.

7-8-11: Space shuttle Atlantis made its final launch from Cape Canaveral, Florida after almost cancelling due to weather and a technical glitch.

7-8-11: Washingtonians watched the final shuttle launch of Atlantis at the Air and Space Museum.

7-8-11: Nadya "Octomom" Suleman faces scrutiny for having 6 more children, in addition, to her brood of 8.

7-11-11: The US soccer team is headed to the World Cup semifinals.

7-12-11: Are flip-flops appropriate attire for work? Yes, but check with your supervisor.

7-13-11: Barbara Harrison visits John Tay, who has spent most of his life in the hospital, on Wednesday's child.

7-14-11: Line forms outside of theaters for the midnight viewing of "Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part 2."

7-14-11: A new Montgomery County task force is tackling the growing issue of dangerous hoarding in the area.

7-15-11: The NFL lockout may come to an end after four months of negotiations.

7-15-11: Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part 2 opened at Midnight at the Uptown Theatre in Northwest DC.

7-15-11: The first lady, Michelle Obama, surprised patrons at Eatonville on U street.

7-18-11: The ACLU is hoping to ground a lawsuit filed against a local newspaper by Redskins owner Dan Snyder.

7-18-11: A new book called, "Spousonomics," makes having the money talk easier in order to strengthen your marriage.

7-18-11: A mother and son reunite after 36 years.

7-18-11: The US women's soccer team losses the world cup to Japan in Frankfurt, Germany.

7-20-11: NFL representatives travel to Washington to vote on an agreement to end the lockout.

7-20-11: State Farm Insurance donates 1.4 million to the National Zoo to save the Kid's Farm for the next five years.

7-20-11: Constellation Energy Group starts a commercial wind farm that serves Maryland, Delaware, and Virginia.

7-20-11: Barbara Harrison visits a family who adopted three brothers from foster care on Wednesday's Child.

7-20-11: In this "What's Your Workout?" edition, parents and kids have fun and exercise through a Go Ape! Treetop Adventure.

7-22-11: The royal wedding dress is on display at Buckingham Palace.

7-22-11: Volunteers from Floris United Methodist install a unique summer program in Herndon, Virginia.

7-25-11: After the NFL lockout, players are gearing up and training camp begins for Redskins.

7-26-11: Washington Redskins fans react to the upcoming football season after the lockout.

7-26-11: A private memorial service for the death of singer, Amy Winehouse.

7-26-11: Montgomery County is considering a curfew to get kids off the street late at night.

7-26-11: Single-family home that sits in between a sound wall on the Capital Beltway.

7-27-11: Donovan McNabb leaves the Washington Redskins.

7-27-11: Tommy Gallagher recovering after his younger brother shoots him in the eye with a BB gun.

7-27-11: A Loudon County deputy is being hailed a hero tonight for his quick actions in a chaotic situation.

7-27-11: Man spends half his life on the sex offender registry after having sex with his high school sweetheart, who's now his wife.

7-27-11: A look back on all the children on "Wednesday's Child" that still need a home.

7-27-11: One-year countdown to the 2012 Olympics in London is underway.

7-27-11: A teenager in Prince George's County is being called a boxing phenom.

7-28-11: After two seasons of failing to meet expectations, Albert Haynesworth, is officially not apart of the Redskins.

7-28-11: "Breast Milk Baby," a controversial doll that has been hugely popular in Europe is now headed to the United States.

7-28-11: Jeopardy host, Alex Trebek found himself in Jeopardy after confronting a burglar who broke into his California hotel room.

7-28-11: 5th graders enrolled in a high-tech summer camp in our area.

7-28-11: DC has dropped in the rankings of a new study as an ideal place for single ladies to live.

7-29-11: Hundreds of Washingtonians are gearing up for an exciting game of kickball.

7-29-11: The Washington Animal Rescue League is holding an adopt-a-thon- for pit bull mixes.

8-1-11: Health insurance plans will soon be required to offer birth control to women for free.

8-1-11: Benefits of fish oil supplements: Pregnant women taking the pills not only improve their child's immune system but it can also help a baby fight a cold faster.

8-1-11: Washington National's Miracle League: Baseball for kids with disabilities.

8-2-11: Southern memorial Garden faces foreclosure.

8-2-11: A woman went into labor in her car in northeast D.C. this morning.

8-2-11: Two northern Virginia restrooms are in the running for the nation's top toilet.

8-3-11: Authorities in Stafford County are trying to figure out what caused a crane to topple over.

8-3-11: Meet and greet at Andrews Air Force Base for the 70th anniversary of the start of the Tuskegee Airmen.

8-3-11: An Idaho woman got quite the surprise after a New Zealand couple returned a world war 2 diary belonging to her late husband.

8-3-11: Keeping twins, Erin and Elise together, on the edition of Wednesday's Child.

8-3-11: A star soccer player with DC United thanked the local doctors and six nurses who helped him narrowly escape death after a car accident on the GW Parkway.

8-3-11: A 28 year-old woman is recovering in the hospital today after surviving four days in the wilderness.

8-5-11: Tom Brokaw follows three families who have been affected by the war in Iraq.

8-5-11: Good news for our economy; the nation added 117-thousand jobs last month.

8-5-11: A chef in California is holding a "man class" to teach men how to cook.

8-8-11: Standard and Poor downgraded the U.S. government credit rating; Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac downgraded from a AAA to AA+.

8-8-11: The Dow and Standard and Poor dropped significantly today; President Obama speaks.

8-8-11: The downgrade of the U.S. credit rating will impact more than stocks.

8-8-11: A profile of Catherine Garcia as she shows early signs of being a gifted child.

8-9-11: Developments out of Wall Street after another volatile day of trading.

8-9-11: Recent Labor Department statistics show D.C's unemployment rate at 10.4%

8-10-11: The Dow has seen triple digit changes in the last 3 sessions and people are wondering when the roller coaster ride will end.

8-10-11: Hug crowds expected to pour into the city for the dedication of the Martin Luther King Memorial.

8-10-11: A judge in Calvert County decided today that families can go ahead with burials at a cemetery that's facing foreclosure.

8-10-11: Wednesday's Child revisits Rematu, a refugee from Sierra Leone.

8-10-11: a 25-year old former delivery driver from Virginia has emerged as the winner of a 107 million dollar mega millions lottery ticket winner.

8-11-11: A godmother's reaction of a fallen Navy Seal Petty Officer First Class Michael Strange of Philadelphia.

8-12-11: John Schriffen reports from Fed Ex Field for tonight's football game. \

8-15-11: Three families in Alexandria are looking for a new place to live after a fire destroyed their apartments this morning.

8-15: Five victims of a deadly stage collapse were remembered today in Indiana.

8-16-11: A mysterious animal shows up in the woods near Prince George's Hospital Center.

8-17-11: Community members donate to Channel 4's annual "Backpacks 4 Kids" drive.

8-16-11: Celebrity chef, Bobby Flay, opens Bobby's Burger Palace opening on 21st and K street in Foggy Bottom.

8-16-11: Metro and district officials said today they're preparing for huge crowds next week leading up to the Martin Luther King memorial dedication.

8-16-11: Leesburg, Virginia is one of the country's best small towns.

8-16-11: Checking in with the "Backpacks 4 Kids" drive.

8-16-11: A pair of brothers from Minnesota is learning a lesson in honesty tonight as controversy surrounds a shot to win for 50 thousand dollars.

8-17-11: Passengers on Virgin Atlantic will receive a "weep warning" alert before watching their next in-flight movie.

8-17-11: Our Wednesday's Child has a lot of interest and thoughts about what she wants to be when she grows up.

8-18-11: A group of special women in Centreville sew for sick children at Fair Oaks hospital.

8-18-11: A new survey finds people are pretending to talk on their cell phones, to get out of everyday conversations.

8-19-11: More turmoil on the markets today; The Dow and NASDAQ both down.

8-19-11: The Redskins take on the Indianapolis Colts.

8-19-11: Aaron Gilchrest profiles a local Jazz club on U street.

8-19-11: The Martin Luther King Memorial is already drawing huge crowds even though it doesn't officially open until next week.

8-26-11: Thousands of college students are rushing to move into their dorms before Hurricane Irene bears down.

8-26-11: Today some students received free backpacks filled with school supplies.

8-22-11: The Martin Luther King Memorial is now open.

8-22-11: Conservation workers at the National Zoon are trying to enhance Tai Shan, the Giant Panda's, physique.

8-22-11: Warning from the American Academy of Pediatrics about children falling out of windows.

8-24-11: This Wednesday's Child - Jose.

8-24-11: One woman gives birth during the Washington earthquake.

8-29-11: Pat Collin's fisherman's hat caught the attention of someone in New York.

8-30-11: Tough time on Capitol Hill for two bars and their patrons.

8-30-11: Today the Army staged a demonstration of how they are documenting every grave at Arlington Cemetery.

8-31-11: Hundreds of unemployed and angry workers today shut down the entrances to a major federal construction site in SE Washington.

8-31-11: Author Maya Angelou has a problem with a paraphrased quote inscribed at the new Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial.

8-31-11: Tonight's Wednesday's child has been adopted.

8-31-11: More problems for the Washington Monument after the earthquake: water has been found inside from the store.

9-1-11: Redskins versus the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

9-1-11: A Colorado man is sharing his story of survival today after he cut off his toes when his foot was trapped beneath a tractor-trailer.

9-6-11: Today kicked off the first day of class for thousands of kids across our area.

9-6-11: Strong reactions to the new look the UMD terrapins sported for last night's football game.

9-7-11: One woman recounts the September 11th attacks as she tried to witness the birth of her adoptive daughter as the planes hit the twin towers.

9-7-11: This Wednesday's Child – Christopher.

9-7-11: The practice of donating sperm comes under fire.

9-9-11: A memorial dedication to the passengers and crew of United Flight 93 will be dedicated tomorrow in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.

9-13-11: Many people who live in public housing fear losing their homes to “new” development.

9-16-11: A new study shows that parents still have a hard time installing car seats properly.

POLITICS

WRC-TV COVERS THE ACTIVITIES OF FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS, AND OTHER REGIONAL ORGANIZATIONS IN A NUMBER OF ITS PROGRAMS, SOME OF WHICH ARE DESCRIBED BELOW.

6/27: The corruption re-trial of ousted Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich.

6/27: Supreme Court decided a California law banning the sale of violent video games to children under 18 is unconstitutional.

6/28: The District of Columbia and six other states have legalized same sex marriage but failed in Maryland.

6/29: President Obama defends his support for gay rights and civil unions.

6/29: Online gambling coming to the District in September may be delayed.

6/30: Prince George’s County councilwoman Leslie Johnson enters a plea deal in a corruption scheme.

6/30: MSNBC suspended political analyst Mark Halperin for an inappropriate remark about President Obama.

6/30: A DC government sponsored website to link job seekers with potential employers was seeking exotic dancers.

7/1: Former CIA director Leon Panetta is the nation’s new secretary of defense.

7/5: Leslie Johnson steps down from Prince George’s county council seat.

7/7: DC council chairman Kwame Brown faces more campaign finance trouble.

7/7: Rockville’s mayor announces her plans to run for office again.

7/8: DC might change its harsh anti-handgun law.

7/11: President Obama says he would veto any short-term extension on the debt ceiling.

7/12: DC council member Kwame Brown strips power from another council member who wrote the report on Brown’s luxury government funded SUV’s.

7/12: Congressional leaders and President Obama have yet to broker an agreement on raising the debt limit.

7/12: Crowds come to say a final farewell to the former first lady Betty Ford.

7/12: Controversy at a clinic owned by Michelle Bachman and her therapist husband.

7/13: Protestors pushing for DC statehood are taking their cause to the courthouse; Neighborhood commissioner Keith Silver arrested.

7/14: President Obama meets with congressional legislators in hopes of raising the nation's debt ceiling.

7/14: Jim Vance sits down with President Barack Obama for an exclusive interview at the White House.

7/14: Former D.C. Mayor Adrian Fenty gives his first local interview since leaving office in January.

7/15: Virginia governor Bob McDonnell has sent a second letter to the Pentagon requesting a delay in the Mark Center Project.

7/15: No deal in the works for the debt ceiling crisis; Debate over tax hikes.

7/18: Town hall set up by Democratic Congressman Gerry Connolly; Republicans charge that Democrats are trying to frighten seniors by mischaracterizing their budget-cutting proposals.

7/19: New questions arise in DC Mayor Vincent Gray's campaign whether tens of thousands of dollars in cash contributions may have violated city law.

7/19: Police Officers in Montgomery County are upset over the outcome of a vote limiting the rights of their union.

7/19: NFL quarterback Michael Vick takes his anti-dog fighting message to Capitol Hill.

7/20: The district allows a licensed gun dealer to set up shop in police headquarters.

7/22: There is still no deal to raise the debt ceiling as the August second deadline approaches.

7/22: The President speaks about the debt crisis at a town hall meeting in Ritchie Coliseum.

7/22: Maryland governor Martin O'Malley will sponsor same-sex marriage legislation.

7/22: Maria Shriver and Arnold Schwarzenegger speak out about their son's surfing accident in Malibu.

7/25: Developments on Capitol Hill involving the debt reduction battle; two separate measures to avoid default were drafted.

7/25: Disgraced Prince George's County Councilwoman Leslie Johnson has less than a week before her resignation takes effect.

7/26: Oregon congressman David Wu steps down as a result of sex allegations.

7/26: A week away from the deadline for Congress to raise the debt ceiling or risk default; No deal is in sight.

7/27: Medical marijuana patients are lobbying on Capitol Hill for government approval to grow their own supply of cannabis.

7/28: The republican controlled house is debating a bill to reduce the federal deficit and avoid default.

7/29: Four days and counting and no deal on the debt reducing measure; lawmakers debating the re-worked bill crafted by John Boehner.

8/1: A congressional panel will decide on another trillion and a half in deficit reductions this fall.

8/1: The House will vote first on the debt reducing compromise reached over the weekend.

8/2: President Obama has signed emergency legislation to raise the nation's borrowing limit avoiding a default.

8/2: President Obama has signed legislation averting a government default.

8/3: President Obama is urging Congress to end the partial shutdown of the Federal Aviation Administration by the end of the week.

8/4: A deal has been put in place to end the nearly two week argument on Capitol Hill that shut down the Federal Aviation administration.

8/4: To mark President Obama's 50th birthday, Eastern High School's marching band serenaded him in front of the White House.

8/5: President Obama addressed the latest job numbers today at the Washington Navy Yard.

8/5: President Obama celebrated his 50th birthday with a barbeque at the White House.

8/11: One day after the down dropped over five hundred points, stocks made a strong comeback.

8/11: President Obama was in Michigan today to talk about job creation in a state where the unemployment rate is above the national average.

8/12: The Ames Straw Poll takes place in Iowa as the race for Decision 2012 takes way.

8/12: DC chief financial officer Nat Ghandi will play a dramatic role as his non-violent hero Mahatma Ghandi.

8/15: Today has been a preview of what the next 15 months will be like on both sides of the campaign trail for Decision 2012.

8/15: republican Governor's association has named Bob McDonnell as the new chairman, replacing Rick Perry.

8/15: Former Virginia Governor George Allen picks up some key support in his run for US Senate.

8/18: President Obama is on his way to Massachusetts for a ten day vacation with his family.

8-22-11: A new report claims D.C Councilmember Jack Evans used money meant for the needy on professional sporting tickets.

8-22-11: Primaries are being held for the general assembly and local races.

8-24-11: Results from Virginia's primaries have now set up general election matches in November.

8-29-11: Former Vice President Dick Cheney has a new memoir about his eight years at the White House.

8-30-11: Today, D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray tried to "reboot" his 8-month-old administration.

8-31-11: Last Day in the Army for General David Petraeus.

9-1-11: President Obama has agreed to deliver his major jobs address to a joint session of Congress next Thursday.

9-6-11: New poll suggests President Obama has an increasingly skeptical public.

9-8-11: The commonwealth of Virginia has lost its challenge of President Obama's health care overhaul.

9-9-11: After pitching his new jobs plan to Congress, President Obama hits the road to start selling it to the American people.

9-13-11: First Lady Michelle Obama honored some of the nation's top designers at the White House today.

9-13-11: Recordings featuring the late Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis have just been released.

9-16-11: Meet the Press has an all-star lineup this weekend with a visit from former President Bill Clinton.

EDUCATION

WRC-TV regularly broadcasts news and other segments about and pertaining to educational issues. Some examples are listed below.

7-8-11: The early results are in for the latest round of citywide tests for D.C. Students.

7-15-11: Hundreds of poor-performing teachers and staff members will be losing their jobs in the district.

7-15-11: Thousands of Fairfax county students could be adding a laptop to the school supply list next fall.

7-26-11: Several students are suing Minnesota's largest school district over its policy on sexual orientation.

8-3-11: Some bad news for D.C. schools caught in the middle of a cheating investigation; tests scores plummet.

8-4-11: The first day of school is quickly approaching and with it comes the leadership of more than 40 new principals at Prince Georges County schools.

8-9-11: African Americans are three times more likely than Caucasians to suffer from kidney disease.

8-9-11: The new school year is coming with three brand new high schools for Virginia's second largest district.

8-9-11: Nerve damage; they call it the worst pain there is in life and no medication can make it go away. Doreen Gentzler reports.

8-10-11: A new and popular workout that combines yoga, pilates, and dance on today's "What's Your Workout?"

8-11-11: More than three-fifths of Virginia's public schools failed to meet the "No Child Left Behind" standards for reading and math last year.

8-15-11: D.C. leaders and school officials celebrated the upcoming school year with a ribbon-cutting for one of the city's newly updated schools: Anacostia Senior High.

8-17-11: Woodson High School in northeast is the latest HD school to be dedicated as a part of an ambitious 3 billion dollar effort to replace all city schools.

8-17-11: Five outstanding Washington area non-profits were honored for their work to improve educational opportunities for local kids.

8-22-11: Classes are back in session in D.C., Prince George's County, and Virginia.

8-22-11: School Chancellor Kaya Henderson says the school system is kicking it up a notch this year with several schools receiving multi-million dollar renovations.

8-29-11: Montgomery County schools go back to school today including new superintendent Joshua Starr.

9-6-11: Back to school for the following counties: Arlington, Alexandria, Fairfax, Falls Church, Prince William, Manassas, Fredericksburg, and Stafford.

9-6-11: The American flag and its brief history as its hung on the side of the Pentagon.

9-9-11: This weekend RFK stadium will once again host a football game.

9-12-11: The national Memorial to the victims of the September 11 terrorist attacks opened to the public today on the grounds of the World Trade Center site.

9-16-11: President Obama visits Thomas Jefferson High School.

9-16-11: In tonight's Education Nation, were featuring one local math teacher who describes her job as the best job in the world.

VIOLENCE/CRIME

WRC-TV REGULARLY COVERS ISSUES RELATED TO CRIME, CRIME PREVENTION, AND ANTI-VIOLENCE ACTIVITIES.

7/1: A four-year-old is still in the hospital after another child shot him at close range.

7/1: Security concerns as crowds come in to celebrate the Fourth of July.

7/1: A judge in New York freed Strauss-Kahn from house arrest and released him on his own recognizance.

7/1: Community leader of nelson place in Southeast DC gunned down over 100 dollars.

7/1: House fire in Silver Spring, Maryland.

7/1: Legal battles with the defense team in the Casey Anthony murder trial.

7/4: Young boy drowned at Sandy point beach State Park.

7/4: The jury is deliberating in the Casey Anthony trial.

7/5: Casey Anthony verdict "not guilty."

7/5: Criminal defense attorney Rene Sandler joins NBC 4 on the not guilty verdict in the Casey Anthony trial.

7/5: A Bristow mother facing felony charges in the death of her two-year-old son for leaving him in a vehicle.

7/5: An SUV crashed into a family home in Aspen Hill overnight.

7/5: CASA de Maryland training human rights monitors.

7/5: Mexican authorities are searching the Gulf of California for seven American tourists.

7/5: Murder in an upscale Virginia neighborhood.

7/5: Lawsuits and counter lawsuits in the sex assault case involving former IMF chief Strauss-Kahn.

7/5: Three churches in Vienna burglarized.

7/5: A Florida woman facing charges and jail time after posting a fake online ad offering sex.

7/6: A northern Virginia woman is free on bond after facing charges in the death of her son by leaving him in a vehicle for seven hours.

7/6: After a manhunt for a suspect armed with a gun and a hammer, the Baltimore Washington parkway is back open.

7/6: Casey Anthony could be one day away from freedom; It's a possibility the judge could sentence Anthony to time served.

7/6: Alternate juror on Casey Anthony verdict speaks out, including former fiancé, Jesse Grund.

7/6: Controversy and confusion over the "not guilty" verdict in the Casey Anthony trial.

7/6: DC mayor Vincent Gray says the city has stepped up efforts to protect young people involved in the city's summer jobs program.

7/6: People are outraged over the "not guilty" verdict in the Casey Anthony trial.

7/7: One man found on video is connected to a series of arsons in DC.

7/7: Casey Anthony will be out of jail in less than a week.

7/7: Kidnapping victim, Jaycee Dugard, telling her story in a new memoir.

7/8: A driver veered onto the shoulder, striking a parked car in a deadly crash on the Beltway.

7/8: The woman accused of killing her coworker at a Bethesda yoga shop will go to trial in October.

7/8: Nine people are out of their homes tonight after an early morning fire in a stretch of row houses in northeast DC.

7/8: Three men are under arrest in connection with a murder in Northeast DC last month.

7/8: Police say the "shower bandit" has struck again but this time he got caught.

7/8: A woman accused of stealing a live lobster from a downtown Annapolis restaurant was arrested last weekend.

7/11: An arrest in a high profile murder.

7/11: Police in Montgomery County are offering a reward in an effort to find the suspect in a deadly shooting.

7/11: A woman is dead and her dog is missing after a deadly crash in Prince William County.

7/11: The FBI says a child pornography ring could be linked to the murder of a North Carolina teen who disappeared in our area.

7/11: On Sunday, Casey Anthony will walk out a Florida jail as a free woman, having completed her sentence for lying to police.

7/12: A judge has sentenced a Prince Georges County woman to 20 years behind bars for the deaths of two men.

7/12: Victim's families of Jenny Mate want a maximum penalty of 21 years.

7/12: A prominent member of the Falls Church community in court on child sex abuse charges.

7/12: Governors of Virginia and Maryland are turning on the pressure to bring down the cost of a planned metro station at Dulles airport.

7/12: Florida police who investigated the Casey Anthony case spoke publicly for the first time since her acquittal.

7/12: Montgomery County is proposing a curfew on minors.

7/13: Son of DC council member, Marion Barry, arrested and charged with intent to distribute PCP.

7/13: Opening statements today in the perjury trial of former all-star pitcher Roger Clemens.

7/13: A staffer at a local employment agency is accused of trying to sexually assault women who were looking for jobs.

7/13: DC's inspector general finds nothing unusual about the police escort given to Charlie Sheen.

7/13: Casey Anthony has been served with a subpoena to give a videotape disposition next Tuesday.

7/14: Mother and her young son carjacked in Baltimore.

7/14: Police in Prince Georges County made an arrest in a rare mid-day murder.

7/14: A federal judge declared a mistrial in the perjury case against former baseball great Roger Clemens.

7/14: Two gunmen try to hold up an armored truck but leave empty handed in a fancy Porsche.

7/14: A Louisiana attorney faces legal trouble after a brawl in a bar.

7/14: An international heroin smuggling ring that used Dulles airport as part of its supply chain is out of business.

7/15: Kidnapping attempt happened inside a Best Buy store in Germantown.

7/15: DC police officer is in trouble with the law over a series of alleged sex assaults.

7/15: Casey Anthony will be released from jail on Sunday, having completed her sentence for lying to investigators in the disappearance and death of her daughter Caylee.

7/18: For the second time in three days, someone has been robbed along the metropolitan branch trail.

7/18: A pedestrian is struck and seriously wounded in DC.

7/18: The whistleblower in the UK hacking has been found dead in his house near London.

7/18: A ball of fire ripped through the Washington Yacht Club overnight.

7/18: A murder suspect who escaped custody was back in the courthouse he fled from last week.

7/18: Casey Anthony spent this day as a free woman.

7/19: Agents arrested a man from Fairfax, Virginia accused of being on the payroll of Pakistan's spy agency.

7/19: Rupert Murdoch and son questioned at a historic appearance before a Parliament committee in the UK scandal.

7/19: Police in Fairfax are looking for a man who broke into a home and attacked a woman with her young children inside.

7/19: the Guardian Angels are patrolling the Metropolitan Branch Trail after bikers and joggers were robbed.

7/19: Casey Anthony hasn't been seen in public since being released from a Florida prison over the weekend.

7/20: Police are investigating the murder of a transgender person in northeast.

7/20: Yonathan Melaku is the ex-marine accused of firing shots at the Pentagon and other military targets.

7/20: an Arlington County police officer is hospitalized with serious injuries after a car accident.

7/20: Case Anthony remains out of the spotlight.

7/22: Bomb rips through Norway's government buildings killing as many as ten people.

7/22: Police in Prince Georges County say they've brought down a copper theft ring.

7/25: A baby boy who went missing over the weekend is safe tonight after being found in northeast DC.

7/25: the man accused in Friday's deadly attacks is pleading "not guilty," despite his confession to carrying out the massacre.

7/25: A Virginia psychiatrist shot and killed by one of his patients in an apparent murder suicide.

7/25: A federal judge denied a motion to dismiss bribery charges against a Maryland state senator.

7/25: Police in London say an autopsy today did not establish a cause of death for Amy Winehouse.

7/25: Crucial new testimony could help Amanda Knox win an appeal of her murder conviction.

7/26: A bizarre rash of attacks inside Fairfax County shopping malls has police searching for an apparent serial slasher.

7/26: Some night owls have helped save their neighbors after dangerous levels of carbon monoxide seeped into a Montgomery County apartment complex.

7/26: The alarming number of children who have died in hot cars this summer was a topic of discussion in DC today.

7/27: A Mount Rainier police officer accused of luring a man back to his home for sex.

7/27: police hope new images showing a man suspected of slashing women on their rear ends will lead to an arrest.

7/28: Dozens of immigration officers are raiding the offices at the University of Northern Virginia's Annandale campus.

7/28: Pregnant woman stabbed at Fair Oaks mall.

7/28: Police in Prince Georges County are investigating a suspicious death.

7/28: An army private in Texas has been arrested on allegations he was planning an attack on Ft. Hood.

7/28: A community in Frederick County is mourning the death of an honor student at Walkersville high School.

7/28: Key evidence in the murder case against Drew Peterson is in question.

7/29: An accident at the Arundel mills Mall left one worker dead and another clinging to life.

7/29: Family in Herndon were abducted from their home, forced into the family car, and driven around.

7/29: Federal agents warn school officials at the University of Northern Virginia they're in danger of losing their ability to enroll foreign students.

7-29-11: Dueling lawsuits have been filed after a deadly wrong-way crash in New York that killed 8 people.

8-1-11: The American college student convicted of murdering her British roommate will remain in an Italian jail until November.

8-2-11: New restrictions on secondary unemployment for Prince George's County police officers following the death of a man at a house party.

8-2-11: The serial slasher has struck again, this time in Northern Virginia where another woman has come forward to report she was stabbed in the backside while shopping.

8-2-11: House destroyed by a two-alarm fire in Loudon County.

8-2-11: DC police urge transgender people not to walk alone after two shootings in northeast.

8-2-11: Casey Anthony's lawyer back in court to keep her from having to return to Orlando.

8-3-11: A teen featured on a show about childhood obesity found dead in his home in Montgomery County.

8-3-11: Dozens of people on five continents have been arrested and charged with child pornography.

8-3-11: The trial of former Egyptian president Hosni Mubarak opened today in Cairo with the ousted leader denying all the charges against him.

8-3-11: Breaking news in the murder case of Robert Wone; a settlement has been reached with three suspects and Wone's widow.

8-3-11: Casey Anthony won't have to return to Orlando and Anthony's fraud conviction trial will be presided by the judge who handled her murder case.

8-4-11: Virginia Tech on lockdown after a gunman roams on campus but the police give the all clear.

8-4-11: After the Virginia Tech scare, concerns are raised about guns on college campuses.

8-4-11: A mother and son found murdered inside their Prince George's County home.

8-4-11: Police give the all clear after the Virginia Tech campus was locked down for the report of a man with a gun.

8-4-11: A family of 7 trapped inside their burning home in Charles County.

8-4-11: There's been a civil settlement in the high profile of a murder of a Washington lawyer.

8-4-11: A 16 year-old led a Spotsylvania Sheriff deputy on a wild car chase.

8-4-11: New developments in the controversial case involving a Georgia mother who lost her child in a car crash.

8-5-11: Brutal attack and rape on a playground in a quiet townhouse community.

8-5-11: Women attacked in our area because of their sexual orientation.

8-8-11: Police say a woman was murdered just a few blocks away from the white house.

8-8-11: A Virginia family is paying tribute to their son, a member of the elite navy seals, who was killed in Afghanistan over the weekend.

8-8-11: Traffic along I-95 is back to normal after a deadly tractor trailer accident in Lorton, Virginia.

8-8-11: Authorities are conducting an autopsy to determine what killed a man who died shortly after he was tased by police.

8-8-11: Two young men drowned in a Maryland river over the weekend; One was trying to save the other.

8-8-11: One student was killed and several others were injured after a polar bear attack in Norway.

8-9-11: A Maryland woman vanishes on vacation in Aruba; Her friend is in custody.

8-9-11: 16,000 police officers are suiting up and flooding the streets of London to try and prevent a fourth night of violence.

8-9-11: A final homecoming today for 30 US troops killed when their helicopter was shot down over Afghanistan on Saturday.

8-9-11: D.C. police say the "All hands on deck" initiative will go on, despite a recent ruling by the Public Employee Relations Board.

8-9-11: Concetta Graves, mistakenly taken as Casey Anthony, has become afraid of leaving her home after being attacked with hateful speech and violence.

8-9-11: D.C police chief Cathy Lanier has demoted the commander in charge of special operations.

8-9-11: Police say a psychiatrist in Montgomery County killed her son and herself and left behind a suicide note.

8-9-11: A Pennsylvania man turned a very personal custody battle with his ex-wife, into a very public fight over his first amendment rights.

8-10-11: Shoppers are on edge as a man cuts women's backsides in northern Virginia malls.

8-10-11: A popular nightclub in Prince George's County was shut down after a drive-by shooting that left one person dead and another wounded.

8-10-11: Police have called off the water search of missing Frederick woman in Aruba and now will be picked up by the FBI.

8-10-11: The riots in London have finally turned to murder; Three young men were hit by a car and police are saying it wasn't accident.

8-10-11: US military officials in Afghanistan say the Taliban members who killed 30 American servicemen by downing their helicopter have been found and killed.

8-10-11: Violent crime is down in the district and city officials don't know why.

8-10-11: A trio of siblings who sparked a nationwide man hunt are now in police custody.

8-11-11: A driver of a pickup truck loses control and cuts across the median slamming into another vehicle.

8-11-11: A rude awakening for residents in Sterling after an explosion at an apartment complex.

8-11-11: A home depot truck and a DC department of transportation truck collided this afternoon off Rhode Island Ave in northwest.

8-11-11: FBI is now playing a critical role in the investigation surrounding Robyn Gardner's disappearance in Aruba.

8-11-11: The Pentagon released the names and service branches of the 30 Americans killed when their helicopter was shot down in Afghanistan over the weekend.

8-11-11: Three teens arrested in Philadelphia in a violent rash of so-called "flash mobs" across the country.

8-11-11: A woman whose face was mauled by a chimpanzee has released the first images of herself following a face transplant.

8-11-11: Two secret service agents helped uncover a credit card skimming operation.

8-11-11: A family of fugitives is behind bars; three siblings who eluded police came to a crashing end in Colorado.

8-12-11: 35-year-old Frederick resident Robyn Gardner disappeared in Aruba last week and her travel partner, Gary Giordano of Gaithersburg, is a suspect.

8-12-11: A woman driving on the Beltway in Prince George's County escaped unharmed from her burning Hummer overnight.

8-12-11: Dozens of law enforcement officers busted an illegal gambling ring in Falls Church dubbed "Operation Acres and Eights."

8-15-11: The last man to see Robyn Gardner alive has his first court appearance and more women are coming forward with disturbing allegations.

8-15-11: An accomplished journalist is found dead in her Georgetown home.

8-15-11: Tonight in Aruba, prosecutors are trying to keep Gary Giordano of Gaithersburg locked up.

8-15-11: Police are trying to figure out whether the death of a veteran journalist in DC was a mishap or murder.

8-15-11: An FBI team in Pakistan is leading the investigation of the kidnapping of a man from Rockville.

8-15-11: Police say they have identified several members of a flash mob that robbed a 7-Eleven in Germantown this weekend.

8-15-11: Police have ruled 91-year-old, Viola Drath, who was found dead in her Georgetown home Friday morning, a homicide.

8-15-11: A Gaithersburg man suspected in the disappearance of a Maryland woman in Aruba will remain behind bars.

8-15-11: D.C police say an undercover prostitution sting led to 74 arrests this weekend.

8-15-11: Casey Anthony has only 12 days to report to probation officials in Florida following a new ruling tied to her conviction in a check fraud case.

8-16-11: New developments in the Albert Haynesworth defense after he was accused of sexually abusing a waitress at the "W" Hotel in downtown DC.

8-16-11: Police believe a 92-year old woman found dead inside her home last night, in in District Heights was murdered.

8-16-11: Prosecutors in Aruba say they're considering manslaughter charges against Gary Giordano.

8-16-11: Pat Collins catches up with the husband of the journalist who was murdered in Georgetown.

8-17-11: A teenager is in custody tonight accused of murdering his neighbor.

8-17-11: The husband of a D.C socialite is now facing charges in her murder.

8-17-11: A possible motive in the missing woman in Aruba; the prime suspect took out a million dollar insurance policy on his travel companion Robyn Gardner.

8-17-11: A teenager arrested in the murder of a 92-year-old woman in District Heights.

8-17-11: 15-year-old William Fitts is being charged as an adult as hes accused of killing 92-year-old Thelma Steele.

8-17-11: Police in Montgomery County are still looking to make arrests in the flash mob robbery at a convenience store in Germantown.

8-17-11: Police in Prince George's County are investigating what they believe was a domestic dispute that turned deadly.

8-17-11: An Arlington County employee is being hailed a hero after taking down a thief.

8-17-11: A slain San Diego police officer brings a community together after they learned about a simple, act of kindness.

8-18-11: Graphic and disturbing evidence in the disappearance of Robyn Garner in Aruba.

8-18-11: An exhibition basketball game in China turned into an all-out brawl.

8-18-11: The government is accusing Haynesworth's attorney of trying to pay off the victim in his sexual assault case.

8-18-11: Police in Pakistan have just released a sketch of a potential suspect in the kidnapping of a man from Rockville.

8-18-11: Thousands of motorcycle riders began gathering today for an annual pilgrimage to remember the victims of 9-11.

8-18-11: Metro spends a big chunk of its budget on overtime and it raises questions about costs and whether workers are being pushed too hard.

8-18-11: There is one parking space that has directly helped change the course of history in the Watergate scandal.

8-19-11: NBC has obtained Gary Giordano's witness statement revealing what he told police about the day Robyn Gardner disappeared.

8-19-11: Army special agents have been trying for months to identify ashes in an urn found in a mass grave at Arlington national cemetery.

8-19-11: The Arkansas men known as the "West Memphis Three" have been set free.

8-19-11: Announcing travel plans on Facebook can lead to home burglaries.

8-19-11: For the second in a week, a "flash mob" has robbed a convenience store in our area.

8-26-11: A D.C. police officer is in custody tonight after a shooting early this morning in northwest.

8-22-11: Former Redskins player, Albert Haynesworth, pleads no contest to simple assault charges.

8-22-11: Libyan rebels control most of Tripoli.

8-22-11: Loudon County has charged a man with prowling the internet and soliciting sex from a 13-year-old girl.

8-22-11: Consulting Giant Booz Allen Hamilton is facing another multi-million dollar sex discrimination lawsuit.

8-22-11: New clues in the disappearance of a Maryland woman in Aruba. Another witness steps forward.

8-24-11: A mother videotapes herself putting hot sauce in her son's mouth as punishment and her verdict is in.

8-25-11: Colonel Moammar Khaddafy sends an audio message to his supporters urging them to fight in the streets.

8-25-11: Pictures have surfaced of the Maryland woman missing in Aruba standing next to her accuser hours before her disappearance.

8-29-11: There are 30 deaths being blamed on Hurricane Irene. Among them is a teenager from Manassas Park.

8-29-11: Fairfax County Police are looking for a man who abducted a 5-year-old girl out of her bedroom.

8-30-11: Today lawyers lost their battle to postpone the trial of the lululemon murder suspect Brittany Norwood.

8-30-11: August has become the deadliest month for U.S. troops in the nearly 10-year-old war in Afghanistan.

8-30-11: The father of the lead suspect in the missing woman in Aruba case has come forward.

8-31-11: The Maryland man jailed for the disappearance of his travel companion in Aruba will stay behind bars for another 60 days.

8-31-11: Man uses a live power wire as a battering ram against another person during Hurricane Irene.

8-31-11: 34-year-old Antwain Henderson is found dead inside the trunk of a burnt out car in Prince George's County.

9-1-11: Students pepper sprayed at Caesar Chavez Charter School in the district.

9-1-11: NBC's News Chief Foreign Correspondent Richard Engel shares with us a two part series on how the 9/11 attacks changed America.

9-1-11: Two years after his death, police still don't know who killed Fred Davis. Davis' wife makes an emotional plea.

9-6-11: Michael Cook, a high school band teacher accused of soliciting sex from a minor on the internet was in court today.

9-6-11: Authorities say a man with a rifle walked into an IHOP during the breakfast rush and shot nine people.

9-6-11: The prime suspect in the disappearance of a Maryland woman on the island is talking to his father about his treatment behind bars.

9-6-11: Amanda Knox returned to a courtroom in Italy today one day after forensic experts cast doubt on the evidence used to convict her of murdering her roommate.

9-7-11: A massive crane used for repairs fell over and crushed some cars.

9-7-11: Police in Fairfax County have identified the suspect in a string of bizarre attacks.

9-7-11: The friends of Robyn Gardner, the woman missing in Aruba, have traveled to the island to learn more about her disappearance.

9-8-11: Another accident involving a huge crane.

9-9-11: Three people swept away in rain-swollen waters in Northern Virginia.

9-9-11: A potential terror threat as we approach the 10th anniversary of September 11th.

9-9-11: D.C. Police Chief Cathy Lanier is talking about new warning just days before the 10th anniversary of 9/11.

9-9-11: The Benedict Bridge in southern Maryland just reopened following a four-car crash that killed two people.

9-12-11: A shooting on Savannah Street in southeast connected with a transgender woman.

9-12-11: Former D.C. mayoral candidate Sulaimon Brown was arrested early this morning for driving with a suspended permit.

9-12-11: Ongoing security concerns after the tenth anniversary of the September 11th attacks.

9-12-11: Casey Anthony's parents are speaking out for the first time since their daughter was acquitted of murder.

9-12-11: There is new surveillance video of Robyn Gardner who disappeared from Aruba 5 weeks ago.

9-13-11: Gary Giordano's family has hired Jose Baez to represent him.

9-13-11: D.C. fire officials are trying to figure out who intentionally set fires overnight that forced two families from their homes.

9-13-11: FBI Director Robert Muller says the terror threat that became public just before the 9-11 anniversary is not yet fully resolved.

9-13-11: Police departments throughout the area are investigating a rash of shoplifting thefts of detergent.

9-16-11: Police have charged a teenager in the stabbing death of her roommate at Bowie State University.

9-16-11: Emotional scenes on Bowie State University's campus today as students try to cope with a stabbing in their community.

9-16-11: The search continues for a driver who hit and killed a man in Arlington overnight and kept driving.

9-16-11: Police want to know if drag racing was a factor in a deadly early morning crash in Prince George's County.

9-16-11: Police search for a missing mother, Susan Powell, as two cadaver dogs hit on something the other day in the Utah desert.

CONSUMER

WRC-TV airs daily segments on issues of interest to consumers, including safety, cost saving, government regulations, and new products.

6/27: The recession curtailed plans to redevelop the District's southeast waterfront near the baseball stadium.

6/27: 37 million Americans move to new homes each year; Liz Crenshaw tells how to choose the right moving company.

6/28: New rules prohibit the manufacturer to sell or resell the traditional drop-side rail cribs in attempt to combat infant deaths.

6/30: Food safety while picnicking in the summer.

6/30: The start of July means higher tax on alcohol in Maryland; Man's best friend is now allowed at certain restaurants.

7/1: Liz Crenshaw gives the rules for firework this 4th of July season.

7/11: Flash sales online.

7/11: PEPCO ranks number one on "Most Hated Companies" list.

7/11: Mobile lottery trucks in downtown Washington.

7/12: Civil war fans can use their smartphones as tour guides.

7/12: Liz Crenshaw explains: cutting costs to save money and tweeting your way to college scholarships.

7/12: Wallet pop dot com releases great deals in July.

7/13: Lawmakers on the Hill debate on how to tackle the shady practice of cramming.

7/13: Zip boat rentals for the summer.

7/14: How to keep fruits and vegetables fresher after you buy them.

7/14: In this Friday's edition of Ask Liz, she answers questions concerning coconut water and milk, cost effectiveness to raise air conditioning, and how to clean a food thermometer.

7/18: Liz Crenshaw has the latest tricks of the trade with summer desserts and the freshest ingredients.

7/19: Energy and money saving tips in the sweltering heat this summer.

7/22: New website that offers deals for those who want to help out charities.

7/25: Resale sites lets groupon buyers sell unused or unwanted coupons.

7/25: testing consumer knowledge on credit card debt and fico scores on today's Liz Quiz.

7/26: Airlines on a tax holiday following a federal tax that expired have consumers not seeing cheaper flights.

7/26: A proposed rule to change the labeling on packaged meat and poultry.

7/26: The US Postal Service released a list of 37 hundred post office locations looking at possible closures.

7/28: Summertime tips and tricks.

7/29: Macy's, Chefs-a-go-go truck handing out free lunches to fundraise for "Feeding America."

7/29: Ask Liz: Best way to repel mosquitoes, who to call for hanging limbs on power lines, and the Do Not Call Registry.

8/1: The Baby Bullet on this edition of Does It Really Do That?

8/2: The best way to get a deal on a rental car and the list of most popular vehicles stolen.

8/2: Consumer product safety commission announced recall of B-fun keys and parents magazine keys.

8/2: Budget Rent A Car of Atlanta is teaming up with an agency that makes advertisements for cars.

8-4-11: Fears the economy is not getting better and a global slowdown sent stocks tumbling.

8-4-11: Liz Crenshaw examines when to buy new electronics.

8-5-11: A calm day in the stock market as the Dow stabilizes.

8-5-11: The slowing global economy could actually mean good news for drivers as gas prices will drop.

8-8-11: A Verizon worker strike could impact the company's land-line and FIOS services.

8-8-11: A specialty designed truck that sells lottery tickets in the district is having its own bit of bad luck.

8-9-11: People in Prince George's County say they're being snubbed by popular discount websites.

8-10-11: The price of gold continues to grow reaching 18 hundred dollars an ounce.

8-11-11: Walmart wants to open 4 stores within the District of Columbia over the next year and a half.

8-11-11: People are logging online to sell their high-end merchandise instead of going to pawn shops.

8-12-11: The nation saw some of the biggest gains and losses in the stock market but by the day's closing bell, stocks managed to end on a high note.

8-12-11: The wife of an NBA player is making it easier for women with curves to find jeans that fit just right.

8-15-11: Over 200 local restaurants are participating in restaurant week.

8-15-11: Saving money in these hard economic times.

8-18-11: Turmoil on Wall Street as the Dow loses 419 points and the Nasdaq dropped 131 points.

8-22-11: How to tell if a used car has been flooded.

8-24-11: Questions about the earthquake: Homeowners insurance, gas lines and electrical hazards, and cell phones.

8-25-11: Liz Crenshaw tells parents where to get the best deals for back to school supplies.

8-29-11: Liz Crenshaw answers questions about power outages, wet basements, tree basements, and canceled flights in the wake of Hurricane Irene.

8-30-11: A man from Ellicott City died overnight and his son and wife are in critical condition after apparent carbon monoxide poisoning.

9-1-11: An employee at the Apple company has misplaced the prototype for the Iphone 5 in a San Francisco bar.

9-1-11: Popular pourable gel fuels used to light outdoor patio spaces pose a deadly risk.

9-1-11: Liz Crenshaw helps college students find deals on those expensive schoolbooks.

9-6-11: Liz Crenshaw with the details: Putting off medical bills, insurance for college students living away from home, and celebrity named foods.

9-6-11: Liz Crenshaw here with the details on how to dry out from the rain and insurance coverage.

9-9-11: Nonstop rain brings questions about deductibles, claims, and your rights when it comes to insurance.

9-12-11: Doctors and parents have concerns about how much weight kids carry in their backpacks.

9-13-11: Storm victims who were denied by insurance may still get some help. Liz Crenshaw reports.

9-16-11: Liz Crenshaw answers your questions: wet cardboard, Wall Street, and school buses.

HEALTH

WRC-TV covers issues related to health care, maintaining and improving health, and health-related breakthroughs.

6/28: The FDA is meeting to determine whether the controversial drug Avastin should remain on the market as a treatment for breast cancer.

6/28: NBC's chief science correspondent Robert Bazell has been looking into the effects of Avastin.

6/29: An FDA panel recommends today that the use of the drug Avastin should not be used to treat breast cancer.

6/29: Pat Leahy, a blind man, competes in an amateur lifting competition.

6/30: A special task force delivers recommendations to combat Lyme disease growing in Virginia and Loudon County.

7/4: Doctors at the Los Angeles Brain and Spine Institute are working on a new stem cell therapy for stroke patients.

7/5: Prenatal exposure to certain antidepressants in the womb is being linked to an increased risk of autism.

7/6: Aqua zumba workout helped a man lose 60 pounds.

7/7: Doreen Gentzler has the details on women who endure childbirth without the use of painkillers and surgery.

7/8: Botox and medical grade cosmetics sold online at an illegal and dangerous price.

7/13: Restaurant industry responding to the call of childhood obesity.

7/13: In Wednesday's "What's Your Workout?" Introduces a max workout for one hour and one day a week.

7/14: An Illinois woman is warning other parents about the use of "synthetic marijuana."

7/14: New study shows stamping out smoking in movies could have a beneficial effect.

7/15: Doreen Gentzler shows us the new potential tool for diagnosing and treating concussions.

7/18: New study shows riding with grandparents may be safer for children.

7/19: The Institute of Medicine is hoping birth control should be covered at no costs.

7/19: Neurologists say the hazy days of summer are full of headache triggers.

7/19: Restaurant chains serving calorie-packed meals are the latest target of the so called "food police."

7/25: This fall, two of the country's largest military hospitals will be merged into one.

7/26: There will be a closing ceremony tomorrow for the Walter Reed Army medical Center as the institution prepares to shut down.

7/26: Congenital heart disease is the number one birth defect in babies born in the US.

7/26: The merger between Walter Reed and Bethesda Naval means an influx of cutting edge technology to help wounded warrior.

7/27: Calorie counting in New York City restaurants.

7/27; Tonight, we ask an actor with the touring company for Rock of Ages, "What's Your Workout?"

7/28: More women are having babies followed by strokes.

7/28: A new study says there is no increased risk for brain cancer among teens who regularly use cell phones.

8/2: A new trend in medical treatment; personalized medicine, where the type of therapy patients are given depends on their DNA.

8/3: 350 pound man lost 175 pounds working out and dieting in today's "What's Your Workout?"

8/4: Doctors warn men can develop tonsil cancer from the HPV virus.

8/8: A new study says bacterial growth can form on children's lunches as they sit throughout the day.

8/11: Reading texts, watching movies, or playing games on mobile devices can cause eye problems.

8/15: Parents who have given birth to one child with autism have a higher chance of having a second child with the disorder.

8/15: Mothers suffering from “Momnesia.”

8/16: New ways to perform “bloodless” blood transfusions to avoid risky transfusion.

8/17: Four tobacco giants are fighting the government over graphic new labels approved for cigarette packs.

8/17: Former talk show host, Montell Williams, is apart of a group seeking a license to sell medical marijuana in the District.

8/17: Learn to dance with a Bollywood star in this weeks “What’s your Workout?”

8/18: Child dies in Virginia from a brain infection after swimming in Henrico County.

8/19: Cheerleading is the number two sport in the number of concussions and parents want to know how to prevent them.

8-24-11: Many parents are turning to acupuncture to bring comfort to the their ailing child.

8-30-11: Tips to keep kids healthy this school year.

8-31-11: A 37-year-old woman in Florida was killed after using her shoulder flex massager.

8-31-11: Sugary drinks lead to tooth decay, obesity, and type II diabetes.

8-31-11: TRX: exercise while suspending parts of your body in the air.

9-7-11: A unique class called Cycle Yoga.

9-12-11: New study shows the popular cartoon Spongebob Squarepants may be hurting your children’s brains.

9-13-11: Some families are storing their children’s teeth in order to save their stem cells and potentially improve their lives down the road.

9-16-11: There are things parents can do to make sure the kids are eating right this school year.